PRE-QUALIFICATION

Ithala insists on several critical pre-conditions, including that all entrants' businesses are:

- At least 51% Black-owned
- KwaZulu-Natal-based
- Viable and sustainable
- Promoting job creation

All finalists must be available for interviews regarding their business ideas. This is an important element in the preliminary judging process.

COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS:

1. The competition shall be open for applications from 25 June 2018– 25 September 2018.
2. All entries must be received on or before the closing date. Any entries received thereafter will not be considered.
3. Entry forms will be available at all Ithala offices, branches and will also be available for download on the Ithala website during the course of the competition.
4. Entry is open to all South Africans who are residents of the province of KwaZulu-Natal, aged between 18 and 35, at the time of entry. The business concept must be for the economic benefit of the province as a whole.
5. Employees of Ithala, TIA, Independent Newspapers, their family members, anyone else connected in any way with the competition or helping to set up the competition, are prohibited from entering.
6. There are no entry fees and no purchases are necessary to enter this competition.
7. Entrants must be willing to be interviewed.
8. Winners must be willing to be profiled by Ithala's internal and external stakeholders and to act as the brand ambassador of the competition.
9. By applying, each entrant agrees to take full responsibility for the content of the submissions in their entry forms and he/she agrees to abide by these terms and conditions.
10. All entrants agree and accept to abide by the terms and conditions of this competition and reasonable instructions from the Ithala Business Finance consultants and its competition partners.
11. Entries that do not comply with these terms and conditions will be disqualified, as are entries that are illegible, incomplete or contain offensive, fraudulent or unlawful content.
12. The entrants are responsible for ensuring that they meet all these terms and conditions so that they are able to accept and receive the prizes. These shall include providing valid and up-to-date contact details and complying with all legal requirements relating to FICA documents.
13. All entrants hereby warrant that they are the original authors of their submissions and that they do not and will not infringe any third party's intellectual property and proprietary rights.
14. The winner shall produce proof of the documents mentioned in (12) above, when accepting the prize.
15. The judges' decision will be final and no further correspondence will be entered into thereafter.
16. The prizes shall not be exchanged for cash.

Grand Prize
